JST Partners with Ignite Learning Inc.

Job Skill Technology, Inc. (JST) announced today that it has formed a partnership with Ignite Learning Inc., an Austin Texas based company to provide and support their Internet based History/Social Studies software. This software was developed for middle school students. We had numerous requests for a product in this marketplace and thus far Ignite provides the absolute best learning experience for their targeted students. JST is the first independent group in the country to represent the Ignite product. Ignite selected JST based on our reputation of support and service to our customers.

Job Skill Technology, Inc. is headquartered in Auburn Hills, MI and specializes in providing technology, curriculum, service and support for education and training.
