Livingston Technical Academy Selects Plato/JST
For Their Alternative High School Program

The Livingston Technical Academy an Alternative Charter High School has selected Plato Learning and Job Skill Technology, Inc. to provide their computer-based curriculum for their school. Their selection was based on the scope, depth, and age appropriateness of the Plato curricula. Plato's adolescent/adult curricula was designed specifically to fit the needs of the students. The program will be available for the fall 2005 semester.
