Macomb County Youth Home Chooses Job Skill Technology

The new Macomb County Youth Home has selected Plato Learning and Job Skill Technology, Inc. (JST) to provide Plato Learning's educational software for the new youth facility. The new facility opened in March with multiple computer labs located in the new building. Plato software was selected based on its ability to provide individualized age-appropriate instruction for High School Completion and Michigan Standards. JST has partnered with Macomb County for over 6 years and is proud to be able to continue to work with the professional education staff at the Macomb County Youth Home.
