Coloma Expands Plato

Job Skill Technology, Inc. (JST, Inc.) is proud to announce that Coloma Community Schools is in the midst of a district-wide implementation of PLATO Learning curricula. Initially, the program will be delivered in two buildings – one secondary and one elementary – with plans to roll out the program to the rest of the district. JST, Inc. is assisting with installation and training to ensure a successful implementation. Coloma selected award-winning PLATO Learning curricula and JST, Inc. after successfully running a pilot program at the high school. Coloma Schools and JST, Inc. have been instructional technology partners for three years, successfully improving student achievement.
