Huron Valley Schools to purchase additional Plato Licenses

Job Skill Technology, Inc. (JST) signed an agreement with Huron Valley Schools to purchase additional Plato Licenses.

Huron Valley Schools has doubled its usage of PLATO Learning curricula to include adult, high school and middle school students. The local newspaper highlighted high school students using PLATO as an effective, engaging way to learn and practice skills. Staff and students will benefit from opportunities for accurate assessment and reporting that help to guide instruction and meet individual learning needs. Huron Valley has partnered with JST because of the company's "above and beyond" commitment to customer service and product support, including technical assistance and training.
