New Buffalo Signs Contract with JST for Plato Software

Job Skill Technology, Inc. (JST, Inc.) is proud to announce that New Buffalo Area Schools will begin utilizing PLATO Learning on-line curriculum in the fall of 2007. After a lengthy evaluation process, including plans for implementation, the district has partnered with JST, Inc. and PLATO Learning. PLATO is a recognized leader in the on-line curriculum industry and JST, Inc. has a reputation for quality support services. The computer-based curriculum ranges in skill level from K-12 and will be used for remediation, enrichment, differentiated instruction and credit recovery. PLATO helps teachers to meet individual student learning needs and provides an opportunity to deliver instruction via the Internet. Students frequently enjoy learning at the computer and studies have shown that on-line curricula can help improve student achievement.
